

DEDAN KIMATHI UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY

P.O. BOX 657, 10100 – NYERI, KENYA

TELEPHONE: 061-2050000, 0712-388613, 0731-689230

Website: www.dkut.ac.ke

PUBLIC NOTICE

It has been brought to our attention that a number of individuals/firms have been defrauded by persons purporting to be members of staff at the Dedan Kimathi University of Technology. The fraudsters have been calling unsuspecting victims offering tender documents or contracts in exchange of money to be sent to their phone numbers via M-Pesa. The fraudsters have been allegedly been describing themselves variously as:

| | | |
|---|--|----------------------------|
| 1 | Prof Karega Mutahi (working with) Procurement Officer -David Mbugua | -0712395795 |
| 2 | Professor Aron Ojode (Working With) Procurement Officer -Michael Wanjohi | -0728456445 -0723752830 |
| 3 | Professor Pascal Ochieno Anyande | -0720506663 |
| 4 | Procurement manager –Japheth Bett | -0728456512 |
| 5 | Professor - Thomas Nyabuto Ngere | - 0704587740 |

We urge the public to note the following:

- 1) That Dedan Kimathi University of Technology strictly complies with the Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Act, 2015 on all matters relating to procurement and disposal of Assets.
- 2) That Dedan Kimathi University of Technology publicizes all its tenders in the dailies, IFMIS Portal, Public Procurement Information Portal (PIIP) and on the University's website. All tenders are sold at a cost not exceeding Kshs 1,000 payable to the University cash office where an official receipt is issued. Tenders can also be downloaded from the University website www.dkut.ac.ke at no cost.
- 3) That none of the persons' names given here or others that have contacted unsuspecting suppliers or other members of the public are employees of Dedan Kimathi University of Technology.
- 4) Dedan Kimathi is not liable for any business and /or transactions conducted between the imposters and their victims.
- 5) We urge suppliers and/or general public to confirm the authenticity of documents, Phone calls purported to be Dedan Kimathi University of Technology through our contacts indicated on our website www.dkut.ac.ke.